FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A History of Blackford: Water to whisky and back again

A new history of Blackford, produced by Blackford Historical Society and Perth and Kinross Heritage Trust, is to be launched on the 28th April 2010. Published in full colour, the richly illustrated, 36-page booklet is a colourful account of the parish and village from prehistory to modern times. Exploring themes such as the 19th century industries of “boots and beer”, the arrival of the railway, and the Legend of Blackford, the booklet will also reveal the important prehistoric and medieval archaeology to be found in the area.

The Trust’s Chairman, Sue Hendry, said “We are delighted with A History of Blackford, the latest in a series of successful publications that we have produced in partnership with enthusiastic local groups.”

Chairman of Blackford Historical Society, William McLaren, said “I welcome the publication of this fine booklet which will give readers an insight into the life of Blackford both past and present. I would like to acknowledge all the work that has gone into its production, especially by Perth and Kinross Heritage Trust and the members of our committee who were involved in the production.”

The publication, supported by Perth and Kinross Council, The Heritage Lottery Fund and Highland Spring, will retail at £3 and will be widely available in the village, through the AK Bell Library and Museum in Perth, and at the Trust Office’s at the Library Lodge, or online at www.blackfordhistoricalsociety.org.uk
